

Maumaus Independent Study Program 2020

The 2020 Maumaus Independent Study Programme will run from 9 January to 24 July 2020. The intense programme (312 hours) is devised and organized by the art theorist and curator Jürgen Bock (director of the Maumaus School and Residency Programme and its associated exhibition space Lumiar Cité).

The Programme is open to a maximum of seventeen participants (artists or art-related researchers or other professionals).

The programme is designed to encourage participants to analyse and develop their art practice in a stimulating, intellectually rigorous, yet informal environment. The programme creates a context for the internalisation of comprehension and knowledge through discussion and critical thinking.

Besides regular classes of critical studies and group discussion, seminars, workshops and lectures will offer insights and multiple perspectives on current thinking inside and outside – but always in relation to – the field of art and are devised by a range of internationally renowned artists/film makers such as Manthia Diawara, Renée Green, Florian Hecker, Judith Hopf, Erica Love/João Enxuto, Lone Haugaard Madsen, Willem Oorebeek, Christodoulos Panayiotou, Simon Thompson, Fredrik Vørslev and Emily Wardill; art historians Sabeth Buchmann, Helmut Draxler, Toni Hildebrandt, Elvira Dyangani Ose and Gertrud Sandqvist; philosophers Stefanie Baumann, Bojana Cvejić, Alexander García Düttmann, Michael Marder, Alberto Toscano and Giovanni Tusa, sociologists Avery F. Gordon and Marcel Stoetzler; anthropologist Filip De Boeck; and cultural and political researchers Ruth Wilson Gilmore and Manuela Ribeiro Sanches.

Studio visits will allow the enrolled artists to discuss and develop their work through individual consultations with Jürgen Bock, Lone Haugaard Madsen, Willem Oorebeek, Christodoulos Panayiotou, Simon Thompson, Fredrik Vørslev and Emily Wardill.

(Changes may occur during the course of the programme)
