Maumaus Independent Study Programme 2022

The 2022 Maumaus Independent Study Programme will run from 6 January until 22 July 2022. The intense programme (312 contact hours) is devised and organised by the art theorist and curator Jürgen Bock (Director of the Maumaus School and Residency Programme and its associated exhibition space Lumiar Cité).

The Programme is open to a maximum of twenty participants (artists or art-related researchers or other professionals).

The programme is designed to encourage participants to analyse and develop their art practice in a stimulating, intellectually rigorous, yet informal environment. The programme creates a context for the internalisation of comprehension and knowledge through discussion and critical thinking.

Besides regular critical studies and group discussions, seminars, workshops and lectures will offer insights and multiple perspectives on current thinking inside and outside – but always in relation to – the field of art, and are devised by a range of internationally renowned artists/film-makers, such as Gerry Bibby, Manthia Diawara, Renée Green, Florian Hecker, Judith Hopf, Erica Love/ João Enxuto, Christodoulos Panayiotou, João Penalva, Simon Thompson, Fredrik Værsløv and Emily Wardill; art historians Sabeth Buchmann, Helmut Draxler, Toni Hildebrandt, Ilse Lafer, Elvira Dyangani Ose and Gertrud Sandqvist; philosophers Stefanie Baumann, Bojana Cvejić, Alexander García Düttmann, Michael Marder, Marcia Cavalcante Schuback, Alberto Toscano, Sjoerd van Tuinen and Giovanbattista Tusa; sociologists Avery F. Gordon and Marcel Stoetzler; anthropologist Filip De Boeck; writer Alan Read; and cultural and political researchers Brenna Bhandar, Ruth Wilson Gilmore and Manuela Ribeiro Sanches.

Studio visits will allow the enrolled practitioners to discuss and develop their work through individual consultations with Gerry Bibby, Jürgen Bock, Judith Hopf, Christodoulos Panayiotou, João Penalva, Simon Thompson, Fredrik Værsløv and Emily Wardill.

(NB: the programme is subject to change)

Manuela Ribeiro Sanches taught at the Faculty of Arts and Humanities, University of Lisbon, from 1981 until 2016. She has held lecturing posts at Indiana University, Bloomington; Institut für Europäische Ethnologie, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin; and Maumaus Visual Arts School, Lisbon. She was also a resident scholar at the University of California Center for Cultural Studies, and at the Institut für Europäische Ethnologie, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin. Having obtained her PhD with a dissertation on the traveller and revolutionary Georg Forster, her interest in travel literature and related topics – such as the epistemologies that sustain the subjective processes of perceiving and narrating the described objects – led her to broaden her interests to the field of the history of anthropology, which she articulated with a cultural studies approach from a postcolonial perspective. Having widely published on these issues, she later became interested in the transnational processes that marked anti-colonial movements. Her research interests include African film, questions of migration and racism in Europe from a compared perspective. She edited the following collections of essays: Europe in Black and White: Immigration, Race, and Identity in the 'Old Continent' (Intellect, 2010); *Malhas que os impérios tecem.
